2. Credit System

Each Certification Program or Course of DSCS such as DCCT (DOEACC Certified Computer-maintenance Technician) - may have a number of subjects /papers like DCCT-1, DCCT-2 etc.

The DSCS follows the 'Credit System' for most of its Certification programmes. Each credit amounts to 30 hours of study comprising all learning activities. Thus, a four-credit course involves 120 hours. This helps the student to understand the academic effort one has to put in, in order to successfully complete a course or certification program. Completion of a Certification Program (Technician, Associate or Engineer) requires successful clearing of both, the practical (if applicable) and the theory examination of all the subjects/papers in a Course or Programme. Each course may have a theory or a practical or both. One theory paper of a subject should be of at least two credits.

- Analytical and conceptual comprehension will be assessed through descriptive type questions.
- Cases or problem solving exercises.

- B - 65% - 74%
- C - 55% - 64%
- D - 50% - 54%
- F - Fail

For successfully qualifying a subject, a student will have to obtain at least 'D' Grade in theory/practical examination. However, the overall average should be at least 'C' grade for the successful completion of a certification programme or course comprising of all the subjects/papers and including the practical exams if any. Some certification programmes may require a higher grade for successful completion and if so the same will be mentioned in the syllabus of the certification programme or Course .

If a candidate fails to meet the pass criteria s/he may reappear for the examination by following normal procedure of registration. However there is no provision for improvement. If a candidate gets pass criteria (at least D grade) in all the subjects however fails to get an overall C grade then s/he may reappear for any paper (theory/practical) following normal procedure of registration till s/he gets an overall C grade.
